Happy Mother's Day

I have been spending a lot of time between Sacramento and Riverside lately and I am truly inspired by the colors of Spring. Wild flowers growing all over the freeway hillsides that are normally brown due to the lack of rain. This year the California Poppies are in full bloom everywhere, bright and vibrant orange, my mother's favorite color.

I am writing this from the kitchen of my parents house in Riverside, as I look out the window I can see all of the flowers that my mother loved to tend to and they are buzzing with hummingbirds. Mom loved hummingbirds and every year for Mother's Day we would give her a new hummingbird figurine.

Mom taught my sister and I how to sew at a very young age and when we started quilting we enjoyed going to quilt shows and even weekend shop hops.

What has your mother taught you that you would like to hand down to the next generation or generation after that?

I would like to teach my 6 year old granddaughter how to quilt so I can pass something on that my mother taught me.

I wish all of the mother's both with us and that have passed a very Happy Mother's Day.

Tracy

History of Mother's Day

Celebrations of mothers and motherhood can be traced back to the ancient Greeks and Romans, who held festivals in honor of the mother goddesses Rhea and Cybele, but the clearest modern precedent for Mother's Day is the early Christian festival known as "Mothering Sunday."

Once a major tradition in the United Kingdom and parts of Europe, this celebration fell on the fourth Sunday in Lent and was originally seen as a time when the faithful would return to their "mother church"—the main church in the vicinity of their home—for a special service.

Over time the Mothering Sunday tradition shifted into a more secular holiday, and children would present their mothers with flowers and other tokens of appreciation. This custom eventually faded in popularity before merging with the American Mother's Day in the 1930s and 1940s. In 1914, President Woodrow Wilson had signed a measure officially establishing the second Sunday in May as Mother's Day.

Thursday, April 25, 2019, 7:00 p.m.

The general meeting of the Golden Valley Quilt Guild was held on Thursday, April 25, 2019 at St. Mark's Lutheran Church, 7869 Kingswood Dr., Citrus Heights, CA. The meeting was called to order by President Tracy Trimble at 7:00 p.m. There were 68 members present, including two new members and six guests. A quorum was established. The visiting guild was the Folsom History Museum. Quilt drawing will be January 2020.

Approval of Minutes

Without objection, the minutes from the March 28th meeting were approved as distributed.

Tracy acknowledged the April birthdays.

By a 2/3 vote, the amended bylaws and operating procedures were adopted. Vicki will update the documents and get them to Carolyn to post on the website.

Claudia Forrest introduced us to We Care for some of our community service quilts to benefit fire victims in the area. If you're interested, turn in your quilts with a note indicating they will go to We Care.

Linda Wagner, "Quilting is Cheaper than Therapy"

Linda Wagner has been making quilts for over 35 years and teaching quilting for over 25 years; her personal interests gravitate to scrappy quilts. Presently Linda is a lead mechanic with United Airlines. Previously she taught electronics. Linda is a N.A.T.S. certified teacher.

Lecture "Edgy" June 27, 2019, 7:00 pm

One definition of edgy is having an intense or sharp quality. Borders can just be there or they can be what defines your quilt and gives it real visual impact. Do not settle for the quick and dirty. For this lecture, 40-50 quilts will demonstrate the options you have as the quilt maker/ artist. Along with decision possibilities, we will discuss how to make it "fit".

Workshop "Borders" Saturday, June 29, 2019, Set-up 9:00 am;

Class 9:30am-3:30pm at St. Marks

Borders: plain or pieced. What will give your quilt the best possible visual impact and how do you decide. Inner borders, outer borders, and binding all provide an opportunity to add a little to the finished product.

There is still room in this class. Please contact Sandee Rudolph at 916-725-0830 or luvcool@sbcglobal.net to reserve your spot.

Share & Care

Claudia Forrest - I saw this at the Pine Tree Quilters Quilt show in Grass Valley on May 4th. Cracked me up!

Judy Snook - If anyone is going to Reno on or before May 19th, this special exhibition is not to be missed. May 4th I went to see the special exhibition of Ann Johnston's "Quilts of the Sierra Nevada." It is an incredible exhibit. The last day of this special exhibition is May 19th. Good food in the on-site restaurant.

<https://www.nevadaart.org/art/exhibitions/ann-johnston/>

Carolyn Monson - It took me over a month but . . . I painted my house - slowly, and not every day, section by section. I did have help one day from 2 sons to get 4 areas that were, in my opinion, too high to be safe for me. I also installed 8 new light fixtures (5 front and 3 patio). I got the top of the line Sherwin-Williams paint at 40% off and I am so pleased with the outcome.

Janet Gilstrap-Last weekend I participated in the Pine Tree Quilt Guild show. This is the first time I've entered my work in a show to be judged. I never expected a ribbon, but I'm thrilled to have placed 3rd in my category.

Speaker Hosting #1

Linda Sliepen has been so gracious to host our speakers/teachers each month when they come. We want to acknowledge her kindness, generosity and service to the guild. Thank you so much, Linda!! We really have, and do appreciate your willingness to take on this endeavor.

Programs- Sheila, Sandee and Kris

Speaker Hosting #2

We are wondering if any guild members would like to share in the privilege of hosting our Speakers/Teachers for two nights (Thursday and Friday), feed them the necessary meals, and entertain them on the Friday between our Guild meeting and Saturday workshop. Not every Speaker/Teacher needs housing, but if we could get a few volunteers, we could take turns with the hosting. Some of the entertaining we have done includes: Quilt Shop Hop, Museums in Sacramento, Antique shopping, and Hiking. We find out what might interest them and make plans accordingly. The Guild does not reimburse for any expenses. If you are interested in participating, please stop by the Programs table, contact us by email (lucvcool@sbcglobal.net or jellycharmfg@gmail.com), or drop a note in the Guild Suggestion Box; let us know what amenities you have, such as private bath, pets or no pets, etc.

Thank you, Programs- Sandee and Kristine

Membership

Some of you may have observed Tracy, Sheila and me huddled together, rolling our eyes, moaning and groaning lately.

That's because we enjoyed Victoria Johnson's approach to teaching the Judy Niemeyer paper piecing technique so much that we plunged head first into the deep end and took the Cattails in the Meadow class being offered at Swifty Stitches. There are thousands of pieces to be sewn in this 77" x 77" quilt. Cutting alone has taken more than 16 hours. Without the help and encouragement of my guild sisters, I'd probably still be staring at the instruction booklet wondering what on earth Judy was trying to tell me. And that's what our guild is all about - friendship and support while having fun. This message came across loud and clearly to Beverly Akin, another lady in the class. She came to our last guild meeting and is now a card carrying member of Golden Valley. Now you'll see 4 of us huddled together.

Also new this month is Susan Megeath. I didn't get much time to chat with her at the meeting, but look forward to visiting with her more in the next few months. Please welcome both Beverly and Susan when you see them.

Our guild is 113 members strong and growing every month. Some of this success is due to the advertising we do by supplying our local quilt shops with informational bookmarks and opportunity quilt postcards. Kudos go to Valerie Wong, advertising chair, for her dedication and hard work. We still have 20 members who have not paid their 2019-2020 dues yet. If this is a hardship for you, please let me know. With the board's approval we could probably set up a payment plan for you. If you haven't paid because you're forgetful, consider this a gentle reminder. The application form is on our website. My address is on the form so you can mail your renewal in as soon as you've filled out the application.

Please look for these new members and make them feel welcome. Please, volunteer to be a Mentor!

Community Service

Ladies, we had another outstanding month of generous giving at our April GVQG Meeting. All total, 70 quilts were donated and one member quilted 2 quilts for another member(s). We're always amazed and humbled by how much time our members contribute and their dedication to our Guilds Community Service Program. That's 195 YTD!

Also at the Meeting, Claudia Forrest told us about the program 'Wee Care' for school children in Nevada County. She's asking for quilts which she will personally deliver. If you'd like your quilt donated to the 'Wee Care' program, please pin a note on it and also write 'Wee Care' on the Donated Quilts Log.

Don't forget, we always have a few premade kits available too. There are kits with strips, squares, rectangles or panels and all are precut. They include everything you need to complete the quilt except batting which is available from Hazel Williams who is kind enough to store the Guilds supply.
