Snippets . . . from the president

Happy New Year! Here's hoping 2021 will be a much better year than 2020.

Hope your holiday season was filled with laughter and love, despite the shutdown. Ours was very quiet. I'm always happy when I open packages with quilting supplies. My son has traditionally given me Aurifil thread every year. I got six spools! Made me a very happy quilter (and mom too).

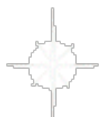

This year started off with the board making the decision to hit the "Pause" button on our membership year. What does that mean? The current board will continue in their positions until we hold another election. While we do have a 2021 Opportunity Quilt, we will wait to display and travel it until it is safe to do so. It will probably be our 2022 quilt but there's nothing stopping us from starting to sell raffle tickets this year for a drawing in December 2022. Again, we will keep you posted.

We sincerely hope that everyone will renew their membership. Your dues are helping to keep us going until it is safe to fundraise again. Our January meeting will again be on Zoom and a number of Sew Alongs have been planned this month. Look for details in this newsletter. Hope you will join us.

The next board meeting will be Thursday, March 4th, 6:30 p.m. Let me know if you're interested in attending and I'll send you the link.

Stay safe and keep sewing!

Vicki

Way to go Golden Valley Quilt Guild! Another stellar year for making and sharing the gift of quilts with others. Each recipient place of donation has been very grateful to you for all your efforts and support.

You are all amazing and make our guild shine.

If you need batting, contact Hazel Williams. If you need backing fabric, let me know, as sometimes folks donate fabric and we'd love to share it with you.

Remember, if you make a quilt, email Jude Hryce and let her know. If you need someone to pick up your quilts, to be donated, please let me know. Swifty Stitches has offered to let you drop off your quilts there if that is convenient for you.

And one more thing, if you need a letter for tax purposes, please let Jude Hryce know so we can get that ready for you.

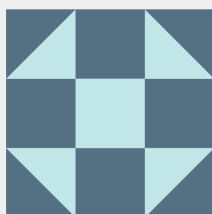

Thank you all, Sheila Galuza - GVQG Community Service

Remember . . . for 2020-2021

I think a Norwegian Troll was messing with the December newsletter. I had this item prepared but . . . it wasn't in the newsletter. I have no idea why!

POOF! [Editor]

Who - Me?

Lotte Reed - The Citrus Heights Police Department pick up 100 quilts from my house for their Christmas program; 12 of those are from Bea Haralson. Thank you for your help, Bea. It feels good that I was still able to do it again this year. I hope every one is well, having a great holiday season, and staying safe. Happy Quilting!

Jody Groves, Sue Shafer, Linda Zisko, Chris Aceituno and Robin Gurrola - Maureen Niemeyer, was the winner of the Canine Companions for Independence, Gone to the Dogs opportunity quilt. Thank you all for your support of our fundraising endeavors. With all of your support, we managed during these difficult times to meet our fundraising goals! Again, thank you!

Maureen Niemeyer - I would be happy to loan my Season 1 through Season 17 DVDs issued by The Quilt Show with Ricky Tims and Alex Anderson for your viewing pleasure. Each Season contains 13 episodes on 4 DVDs. Yup, about 221 hours of inspiration and how tos. My email is:
