Ramblings from Donna ...

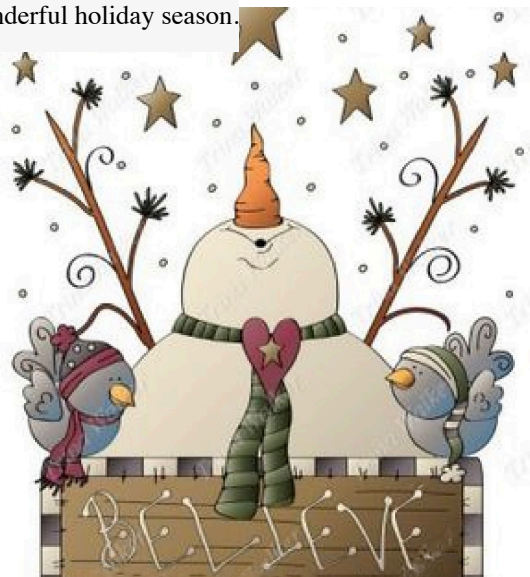

Can you believe that it is already December? I feel like this year has just flown by. I've heard the older you get the faster time goes, but I do wish it would slow down just a bit. I haven't gotten as much done as I would have liked to this year. But then again I think I always say that, so nothing new I guess.

This month we will be having our annual Holiday Party, on Saturday December 10th. I hope you all can join us. It is always a lot of fun with lots of great food and merriment. Please note that there will NOT be any committee tables at this meeting. We want everyone to join in the party. Martha Hess will have the bin for the Opportunity Quilt drawing, so if you haven't already, be sure to drop those ticket stubs in. We will be drawing the winner at the party, as well as revealing the 2023 Opportunity quilt. I have seen it and it's wonderful.

And be sure to bring your stockings for the Children's Home. They loved them last year and always appreciate anything they get. We will be voting on "Favorite Stocking" so be sure to check them out. The guild has taken photos since it began. Sadly all these photos in albums have become a hardship. Each album weighs about 20 lbs. and no one wants to store them any longer. Important ones have been put on the guild website and so the rest will be destroyed after the 1st of the year. These albums will be on display at the party this month, so please look through and see if there are any pictures you would like to have. You may take as many as you like. This will be the last time they are available to see.

And last but not least, I hope to see you this month, but if not I hope that you have a wonderful holiday season.

Donna

GVQG Photo Albums - 2003 to 2008

For several years, GVQG photo albums were maintained and updated by our historians. Then, most of us acquired cell phones with cameras. Then, our newsletters and Facebook began including photographs of our activities. Sadly, there was no longer a need for our photo albums.

So, the albums be at our Christmas Party where you can go through them, see a younger versions of yourself, and remove & keep any photos that you'd like. At some point in the very near future . . . the albums will be destroyed.

Not a member back in those days? It's still fun to go through them and see many of the activities we were involved in. See if you can spot someone you know!

General Meeting Minutes - November

Thursday, November 17, 2022

Meeting called to order at 7:00 p.m.

Visiting guild acknowledged: Needle Nellies from Georgetown, benefitting the Georgetown Fire Dept.

Member Birthdays acknowledged: Nancy Grundel, Linda Zisko, Jayma Valentine, Kristine Gross, Kim Brownell, Gabrielle Wildanger, Ann Barrow, Judi Montgomery, Gloria Hanson, Cordelia Min, & Lindsay Johnston.

Approval of minutes — September 2022 and October 2022 minutes were approved as distributed.

Newsletter Deadline announced as November 30, 2022, due to early December Meeting/Party.

The December General Meeting will be our Christmas Luncheon on December 10th from 11am to 2pm. Photo Albums will be available during the Luncheon for perusal and for members to take home photos. They will be destroyed after that date. Two more people are needed to decorate tables for the Luncheon. There will be no Free Table, Quilted Treasures, Retreat Sign-ups, etc. during the Luncheon.

Bring your tickets to turn in for the Opportunity Quilt Drawing if you have not done so. The Drawing will take place during the Luncheon.

Reports of Officers and Standing Committees:

Martha - Tickets: Martha had Candice B. read the names of the persons who paid for their tickets and had not picked them up. Two people present got their tickets and Martha will call the others who were not present.

Linda Sliepen - Sew Along: There are some months with patterns already scheduled, but after that we will have an open sewing Sew Along. It is too much work for one person to make a sample quilt each month so we will join together on Zoom and share the projects we're currently working on. Linda will be available to answer quilting questions.

Lauren Markell - Community Service: Lauren handed out a flyer regarding our annual Christmas Stocking donations for the Children's Home. Stocking can be made in any size you'd like and stuffed with age appropriate gifts. We will have judging for Viewers' Choice favorites.

Community Service Quilt Donations - 624 quilts donated previously, 118 turned in tonight, which brings us to 742 YTD.

Barbie Robertson - Workshops: This month's workshop is Silk Scarf Painting, January will be a Quick-Curve Ruler quilt, and February is Precision Piecing. She is also taking sign-ups for the June 2023 Zephyr Point Retreat which is now open to non-member sign-ups.

Sheila Galuza - Is still collecting blue paper pieced blocks for the President's Quilt she is making.

UFO Challenge - Asked for a count from those who had taken time to count their unfinished projects. Donna Palmer had 97, Sheila Foster 84, and others had various amounts. This month (November) send Sheila an email answering the question: Why are your things UFO's? by Nov. 30 for the Newsletter.

Short Break at 7:30 pm for program setup

7:49 pm Program: Joy Lilly

8:20pm Break 8:35 pm Bring and Brag

8:46 Drawings & Door Prizes

Attendance: 62 members, 2 new members, 3 guests

Meeting adjourned at 8:51 pm

Opportunity Quilt

Do not forget to turn in your tickets stubs!

The very last chance is December 10th. Get them in the bin before the drawing at the Christmas Luncheon.

Good Luck!

Community Service - 2022 wrap-up

We would like to acknowledge members that completed Community Service this year in the form of quilts and other items. Thank you for your generosity, time and commitment. If there is a .25 or .50 beside your name that indicates you received recognition for additional binding, quilting, etc. for another person. For example if you completed 4 bindings @ .25 each that would equal 1 quilt recognition.

This will be the only notification provided to thank you for your service as it has become expensive to mail individual letters, therefore a big “Thank You” to all.

If a letter/notification is required from GVQG for tax purposes please let us know and we will mail one to you. Please email

Community Service

Ladies and Gents . . . you are truly AWESOME! For the year 2022 you contributed 758 items including quilts, burp cloths, receiving blankets, bibs, personal hygiene items, baby clothing, scarves, table runners, pillow cases and totes to our agencies. Kudos to everyone! We all know how appreciative they are of our contributions. In a time where product prices are increasing you were still able to share and contribute. Thank you again ❤️

November contributions totaled 133.

FEBRUARY - Donna Dale

We have been lucky to have Donna as an active member of Golden Valley Quilt Guild 2010. She's entered many of her quilts in the Folsom quilt show...won best of show, judges choice, members choice and best large pieced quilt. She's won many ribbons almost too many to count and she has had a quilt accepted and hung at PIQF!

Donna has taught precision piecing classes for many years at Quilters Corner. Her class is ideal for beginner quilters to experienced that are looking to improve their skills.

Donna's class is filled.

UFO Challenge

Hello to my fellow guild members with UFO's!

So, we counted up how many UFO's that we have (or we didn't count them but we know that they are there!!).

Next, we are exploring the "Why they became UFO's" question. Some responses sent to me are.....

- There is not a 13th month to finish the Block of the Month! - ShirLee B
- Too many new and exciting projects come up! - Anonymous
- Done/Finished means GONE! - Anonymous but not anonymous
- The loss of four parents within 11 months, and all the trips to Riverside and Fresno, left little time/desire for quilting. - TracyT
- I took a class, and when I got home made dinner for the family, life, and the next time I pulled the project out, I had forgotten the "how to". - Anonymous
- I'll be working along gangbusters speed and then:
  - A quilt for a family member needs finishing
  - I need to sew up an item of clothing
  - A new quilting job lands on my longarm table
  - Squirrel!!! (so easily distracted)

So you see, life goes on and those new things I started for a class, sew along, or BOM just get neglected. -CandiceB

- The jelly rolls were purchased for a specific pattern, but after a time of seeing them, patting them, loving them where they are, they have become part of my room decor! - Guess Who
- I started the quilt, but I just don't love the (fabric, pattern, etc) - Anonymous
- I just shop faster than I sew - Many of Us
- I took a class from a teacher that said it was her last time teaching that class, knowing that I didn't have the time to finish

the project right then, but I sure wanted to learn the method! I've done that twice. -SheilaG

- Started a new business, started a new diet, time for sewing got rearranged.....
- I started a quilt for a cousin but found a better pattern/fabric for him. I finished the second quilt but the first one was found languishing in the closet when counting UFO's. I had completely forgotten about it!
- I didn't have enough purple fabrics to finish my Villa Rosa quilt. I put it away so well, that when I had accumulated enough purples (boyo was that fun!!) I can't find the quilt that I had begun!!
- The pieces are so large ( Judy Neimeyer paper piecing) that I have to rearrange the furniture to set up my sewing area to be able to sew/trim my pieces.
- I have project started that creates a huge mess! So when I work on it, I need to have a large chunk of time and space!
- What about this- you start cutting out your project, and there is a fabric cutting error (once it was the quilt shop's error, once mine) . By the time I found the new fabric, and received it in the mail- I had something else under my needle. I found two of those starts when counting!!

So many reasons! Some we share, some belong to us alone. Whatever the reason, there just might be a solution!! That will be our next discussion. How we can overcome the "Why?"

SheilaG

Hello Wonderful Guild Members!

It is that time of the year again when we start thinking about next year's slate of officers!

Please, please think about stepping into a position of service for the following year. Three of the positions are actually a two year commitment. One year as the elect and the following year in the actual position. They are President elect, Treasurer elect, and Programs elect. The others are just a one year commitment.

If you are interested in getting your feet wet, so to speak, think about taking on one of the committee positions. It can be a lot of fun and a great way to share your love of quilting with others. Some of the committee positions can be shared by more than one person. Too timid to take it on by yourself? Ask another guild member to share the responsibility with you.
