July Program

Community Service Sew Day

Our Community Service Sew Day will be here soon. This time Pat Fryer, of Villa Rosa Designs, donated the “Star Spangled” pattern which is a nice lap size measuring 48” x 60”. Do it up in patriotic colors because it’s July or get a jump on the holidays like Lauren by using Christmas fabrics!

If you didn’t pick up your free pattern card at our June meeting, we gave Susan at Swifty Stitches a stack of the pattern cards to keep under the counter. They are free to Golden Valley members who would like to participate in this project, but you have to ask for them. If you don’t mind waiting until the night of the meeting, you can still gather your fabric. You will need: blue – 1 ¼ yd, red – 1 ¼ yd, white – ¾ yd, binding – ½ yd.

On Thursday, July 28, 2022 we will meet together from 4-9 pm with a very brief meeting at 7pm. Come when you can, stay as long as you like. Bring your sewing machine, fabric and tools needed to sew this simple pattern. The guild will have cutting mats and Irons available for use. We will give tips and tricks on constructing the pattern and you will likely be able to finish the top in the evening. We’ll even provide you with batting. Also, bring your own brown bag dinner or/ plan on popping out to one of the great local restaurants. We will begin cleaning up by 8:30pm so we can be out the doors on time by 9pm.

Visiting Quilt will be:

Snippets . . . from the president

So how’s your summer going so far? I have to say, that I am not having a great one. Between cancer treatments and Covid I am having an awful time concentrating on anything. Throw in the heat and I am totally down for the count! I know a lot of you love summertime, but I’m really not a fan. So I pretty much hibernate. And I can usually get quite a bit of sewing in, but not so much right now.

Hopefully soon, though.

This month’s guild meeting is our Community Service Sew-In. We will be sewing from 4 – 9pm. Bring your machine, and sew, or if you’d rather, you can cut, press, and basically be a gofer. Linda Sliepen will have more information on what to bring. And don’t forget to bring a sack dinner or take a short break to go get a bite to eat. There will be no ‘official’ business meeting.

For those of us that signed up for the Luncheon Quilt Challenge, it’s time to get them finished up. They are due at the August guild meeting. I know that they will be also asking for quilts to display at the luncheon, so maybe pick out one of your favorites, or stitch up a new one. I always love seeing what everyone has done. We have some amazing quilters in our guild. And if you think you aren’t good enough to have one of yours displayed ... think again! We love seeing them all.

General Meeting Minutes

Thursday, June 23 2022 7:00 p.m.

Member Birthdays acknowledged: Lauren Markell, Robin Bess, Susan Zubillaga, Rachele Doty, and Diane Round Visiting guild acknowledged: Yuba-Sutter Valley Quilt Guild - Stars & Stripes Forever Quilt Approval of minutes — May 2022 approved as distributed Newsletter Deadline announced as July 14, 2022

Next Board Meeting will be July 7, 2022 at 6:30 pm via Zoom. The July General Meeting will be held on the 28th.

Reports of Officers and Standing Committees:

Delia and Debra volunteered to head up the construction of the 2023 Opportunity Quilt from a kit Donna had available. Carolyn Monson announced that Fabric donated by an Estate is available to members at the Free Table. Mary Ward - the Opportunity Quilt will travel next week to the Marysville Guild meeting.

Community Service: 283 quilts to date, 12 tonight & 49 more are ready to be turned in. A Thank You card was received and read. Members are encouraged to sew or steam the iron on labels so that they won't come off in the wash. Karen Gray - still taking mini-group sign-ups. Luncheon tickets purchased in June and July will reserve your place at a table. Fabric and shrink wrap are still needed, as are help the day before and day of the luncheon: Six hostess, raffle ticket sellers/runners, and clean up crew.

Tracy Trimble - Luncheon Workshops are on the Thursday and Friday before the luncheon and the cost is $40 for the workshop, $12 for the pattern (available on Etsy). Martha Hess - Reminder that the member who sells the most Opportunity Quilt tickets will receive the miniature version of the pineapple quilt.

Sharon Baxter - Beverly Aikins and husband will help sorting and hanging the Luncheon Challenge Quilt, but more helpers are needed. Linda Sliepen - July Community Service Sew Day: Villa Rosa has donated the "Star Spangled" pattern. Our Zoom Sew Along is moved to July 16 due to a July 9 Scheduling conflict. The August 13th Sew Along will be the "Pointless" pattern. Sew Alongs have been scheduled through April 2023 and will be posted on the website. Christine Canelo - July is the last month of donations for the Luncheon Baskets.

Sign ups for the August Sale will be taken at the July meeting. The Sashiko Workshop in August is a two day class at an off-site studio. A Singer Featherweight Sewing Machine has been purchased as a raffle item for the Luncheon. Barbie Roberson - The raffle prize for this Saturday's Workshop will be a bundle of Halloween fabrics.

Speaker, Jamie Davis Baltimore Album Quilts Lecture 7:31 - 8:25 pm
Break at 8:25-8:40 pm. Bring and Brag 8:40 pm Sew Along quilts were featured. Door Prize Drawings: #14 and #293 were drawn

Luncheon Ticket Sales

Payment for your guests is due by the end of July to keep them at your table. I also still need a few names of guests for their place cards which we make in August. So far, about 125 tickets have been purchased, so there is still space to get your ticket or to invite guests. If you have not been to one of our luncheons, I must tell you that we are really good at putting these on. I have ticket buyers from outside the guild who come to every one we have. Tickets are $40 each.

Come enjoy a fabulous day with us!

Karen Gray

Member Photos

If we don't have your photo for the Member's Only section on the Website, PLEASE get Carolyn's attention at the next meeting. She will take several photos and you can pick your favorite.

If you have a digital photo you like, PLEASE email it to Carolyn - the bigger the better. If it is a group photo she can crop just you out.

God Bless America

Community Service

Thanks to everyone who turned in quilts at our June meeting which gives us a total of 379 quilts year-to-date.

Membership

We are thrilled to see new guests attending & joining each month. With so many new faces, it has become even more important that we remember to wear our name tags. It's the responsibility of each member to create their own name tag. Suggestion-keep it in your car, so you only have to walk back to the parking lot! If not, we have the generic stick-on ones for you. It's easier to make everyone feel welcome when they can see your name.

We had 4 guests at the June meeting attending with current members: Jannine Quiring, Maria Sims, Kathy Berreth & Cheryl Williams. There were 58 members & 4 guests in attendance.

Since the May door prize drawing was not held, the tickets were saved and Sue Terwilliger won a panel donated by member Judy Grijalva. The June door prize, a colorful chicken pin cushion was won by Chris Aceituno.

Three members renewed their membership this month. If anyone has not been able to renew because of tight finances, we have a solution. We've received an anonymous donation with instructions to assist a member(s) with their dues. Just contact Sharon or Janet and we will take care of everything discreetly- a private interaction between membership & the member.

Sharon- 916-955-4148

Janet - 916-396-1829

Membership is in need of new member greeters for the months of August through December. It is too busy at the table for one of us to show guests around and explain about GVQG. It's fun to meet new interested quilters and we give you a guide to explain how our guild works. You can call Sharon or Janet or sign up at the July meeting.

August Meeting

(Thursday, August 25, 2022)

(there IS a workshop in August but no speaker)

For Guild Members who cleaned out their sewing rooms and closets during the COVID lock down (and those who didn't!), this is your chance to sell stuff that you deem too valuable for the free table you really don't have room for and, let's face it, you're not going to use.

This is meant to be a member sale of decent quilting-related items (or any other items that you can carry in and out to and from your car) that others might want (not necessarily an out and out garage sale)

Specifics:

Cost: $5, payable to PROGRAMS, for long table (sorry, I don't have exact dimensions but the ones we use at guild meetings)

Sign up: at July guild meeting (please not after).

August Workshop

Learn Sashiko with Judy Cummings in a special TWO day workshop, limited to 15 people. Workshop will be at a private studio in Fair Oaks - exact times and address TBA.

Saturday and Sunday, August 27 and 28, 2022

Sign up at July guild meeting!

Member workshop price is $30 and non member price is $40.

Total cost for pattern and entire kit is $20

(we will be using the black linen shown below bags)

Hand Stitched Round Bottom Bag

Have you heard of a sniglet? They are words that should exist but don't. Here are some sniglets I came across:

- Boboblivion - continuing to sew a seam unaware that the bobbin thread has run out.
- Triblets - the tiny triangle corners cut off half-square triangle seams.
- Thrundles - the little bundles of tangled thread attached to fabric after washing and drying.
- Blockamuk - sewing one block either upside down or sideways.
- Squichshort - the area not covered by fabric when paper-piecing.
- Erratiseams - seams that don't match.
- Nilfabrication - running out of a primary fabric.
- Subfabrication - substituting a different fabric after running out of the first.

If you know of any other quilting-related sniglets, let me know and we will include them in another newsletter.

See you soon!

Sew-Along News

Who knew that we’d have a heat wave while sewing “Heat Wave”? Stay cool indoors and join us on Zoom for a sewing/gab session this Saturday from 10am – 2pm. Carolyn will send out an invitation and link to our Zoom session EARLY Saturday morning. Look for it in your email.

The pattern is available at Swifty Stitches for $2, or you may purchase a digital copy on the Villa Rosa website. There’s also a mini version of the quilt, titled “Lil’ Heat Wave”. Purchase a digital copy of the little quilt on the Running Doe website.

Rules:

1. We meet on Zoom. Stay in your jammies if you wish; or feel free to get a group together and log in as one.
2. Our session is from 10am – 2pm. Stay with us for 4 hours or as long as you can. Feel free to pop in only long enough to say “hello.”
3. Sew it for yourself. If it isn’t as spectacular as you hoped for, finish it for Community Service.
4. The project we are demonstrating is a suggestion. Feel free to do your own thing. Do embroidery, bindings, mending. Do nothing. Sit and chat.
5. If you find a pattern you think the group would like, suggest it for an upcoming session.
6. Watch your Saturday “Zoom” by PC, tablet or mobile phone.

Did you know you could Zoom with just a mobile phone - no Internet involved?

(A mobile account with unlimited data use required.)

Just download the Zoom app to your device, set up your account, and let Carolyn know so she can text you the Zoom link. If you do not know how to do this, PLEASE, contact Carolyn for help.

Hazel Williams - Not wanting to make Villa Rosa's English Garden full size, I made a smaller version using a Jelly Roll, which turned out to be 41"x 43" including the binding. The Jelly Roll had two 2-1/2" strips of 10 different fabrics. I started the center with two 2-1/2" squares.

Jane Samuelson - This bed is Victorian, late 19th century, Renaissance Revival in style. It was in my grandmother's Italianate house in San Francisco, and being laid down on it for a nap is among my earliest memories.

Grandma's second husband, Frank Bradley, was a bachelor and lived with his parents. When he married Grandma she moved in with them. I don't remember Frank's parents but he and Grandma had a suite on the second floor; a bedroom and living room with a drapery separating the rooms. The living room had a bow window looking down on Capp Street, a fireplace, and a sink. There was a dining table and I remember a family dinner there but don't know how they cooked!

The bed was always there, huge and impressive. When Grandma retired (she was a teacher) she moved to Dixon in order to be near her daughter, my mother. The bed came to Dixon along with the dresser, whose mirror is as tall as the bed headboard, and a commode which is by the bed. These two pieces have marble tops. There is a label stencilled in a drawer: Pacific Furniture Factory, 736 Brannan St., SF. The factory was established in 1877.

This bed has moved again: first to my house in Berkeley, then to my son Don's house in Sacramento because they needed a bed and my husband didn't like this bed, and now to my apartment in Sacramento. I hope and expect it will stay here. I love it.

I should say that Grandma was a quilter and the bed has had a lot of quilts on it.

Hazel Williams - The CS workshop in September shows 2 similar Villa Rosa patterns. Since I already had the TULSA TOWN pattern & plenty of brown fabric scraps I got from the free table, I set to work. I've learned the optimum sizes for CS quilts are approximately 40" x 50", and 40" square for children and wheelchair patients. Generally, Villa Rosa patterns are larger than that, so I most always cut the designs down to a smaller size. First, I cut the fabric pieces per the pattern instructions, knowing I'd have too many. I made the blocks, which were 10" wide x 12-1/2" long. My first arrangement came out like this, making the quilt 40" x 48".

Lauren Markel - Days at the beach . . . We typically no longer take long extended vacations and therefore try to go to the coast 4-5 times a year. We just completed a trip in mid June. Our favorite area is Fort Bragg /Mendocino as it is an easy drive via Clear Lake/Willets route. We love the small redwoods area and the last 25 miles of razorback curves. I have even driven them! Once we hit that cool fresh ocean air we turn into relax mode and probably get these goofy grins. It is so refreshing, even if it rains!

Most of you have most likely visited this area. We like the low-key funky kind of town and the many great restaurants.

The Noyo harbor area is always improving with new or updated restaurants with some of the best seafood available, and most dog friendly. The many miles of paved trails and headland areas provide excellent walking/hiking/biking and the never tiring views of the ocean with some great beaches! We just love it all. My camera gets a workout for sure in case I've not captured that special Kodak moment previously.

If you haven't visited this area we highly recommend for a relaxing get-a-way. And, oh yes... There IS a quilt store!!

Adilia Keller - For Sale: Koala brand sewing table. Lightly used. In very good condition. Lots of drawers and storage options. Closed measures 22" deep by 57" inches long. Fully open it measures 114" wide. Hydraulic lift for your machine. Opening is approximately 11 1/4" by 20 3/4". $650.00. If interested call: 916-622-3718.

Janet Gilstrap- I feel very lucky to have made it to the Sisters Outdoor Quilt Show again this year. A couple of favorites are posted here out of the 1100 quilts exhibited. We were in a B&B right in Sisters, which was wonderful to not to have to deal with the traffic. If you ever get the chance to go, don't skip it! Very inspiring!

Carolyn Monson - I was chatting with one of our members who was not aware of the electrical rate changes during the day. Since space became available in the newsletter I thought I would share this - in case there were others who didn't know either. AVOID 5pm to 8pm as much as possible - it is nearly triple the morning rate.
