May Program

May Tea

Snippets . . . from the president

April Showers Brings May Flowers

As I'm writing this today, it's chilly and raining a bit outside, but it was 90 degrees a few days ago so I'm thinking Mother Nature is off her meds.

Life has been a whirlwind this month for me so I've not gotten much sewing done. I'm hoping that things settle down soon and I can get something finished. I did pull out yarn and have been taking knitting to all my appointments. So far I've finished 2 pairs of socks, and getting ready to start another pair. It makes me crazy to sit and do nothing.

This month's meeting is our Friendship Tea and the title up above is a hint to the decor. Guests are welcome and the guest fee is waived this month. Please bring a tea cup and a teapot if you have one. Also bring a sweet or savory treat/dish to share. Martha Hess has made some really cute little prizes, there are some fun games planned, and we will have the tables decorated for spring. Also bring something to share for Bring & Brag. It's always so much fun to see the cool things everyone creates. We have some really talented quilters in our guild.

We still have a few really important guild positions to fill. We need a Treasurer Elect, and a Program Director Elect.

Mary Ward stepped up to take on the Treasurer position when Shir-Lee Belisle had to step down for personal reasons. So if you are interested or wondering what exactly the duties are for that, be sure to talk to her as she roams around the guild meeting.

Programs are always the fun part of the meeting, and Christine Canelo and Barbie Robertson are doing a wonderful job. Programs are a fun position, because you get to choose the speakers. And, this position is great for a couple or even 3 people to get together and do. If you want to know more about Programs stop at the Programs table and talk to Chris or Barbie.

Another important committee position is Quilt Travel. This would be a really easy one to take on, since Sharon Baxter has the year already scheduled. So it's really just a matter of coordinating and getting the Opportunity Quilt to the members signed up to take it to other guilds. Sharon has done this for the last 12 years, and cannot continue. So please consider doing this. Taking our quilt to other guilds and selling tickets is one of the main sources of income for the guild. Without this income we would not have funds for programs and workshops.

And since we are on the subject of Opportunity Quilts, we need a group to start planning and making our next quilt. It needs to be ready to go by December. Any takers?

And finally, for all the new and newer members. Consider joining a mini group. Mini Groups meet outside of guild and each group decides what they want to do, and where they want to meet. There are 7 of us in the group I'm in. We rotate houses and work on our own projects. But you can decide if you want to work on something together and when and where to meet. This is a great way to meet others and build some great friendships. Karen Gray is the Mini Group person. Stop and see her at the Luncheon Ticket Sales table and sign up.

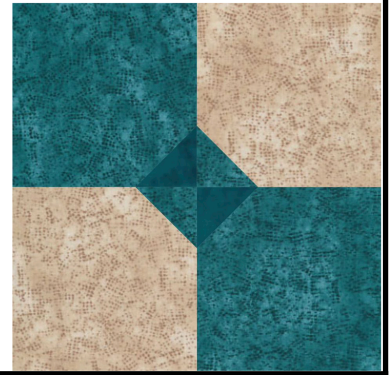

I hope to see you all at the May meeting!

Donna

Opportunity Quilt Ticket Sales

Most Tickets Sold wins this!

Judy Scollay made this Mini Quilt out of leftover fabric from this years Opportunity Quilt and donated it to be given to the guild member that buys the most tickets. I keep a log of all tickets sold to each guild member so each ticket you buy or sale in your name counts. I'll give the mini quilt to the winner on Dec. 10, 2022 at the Quilters' Luncheon.

Martha Hess
Opportunity Quilt Ticket Sales Chairman

Comment from Judy Scollay: After doing several blocks of the raffle quilt I decided to look for a mini version. Having saved scraps from the big quilt, I had enough of all the fabrics for the mini. Never one to waste fabric! I had no plans for it, other than to try my hand at the mini. When we began selling the tickets, I thought this would be a nice incentive. So I made the donation.

If you know of a guild member who needs a little, or a lot, of encouragement or a congratulation, call Kimberly Hess so she can send out a card from the guild.

Community Service

We all understand that community service and education are the most important parts of our Guild with distribution of quilts and other items to our various agencies. We thank you in advance for the generous donations you provide.

Due to space accommodations and until further notice we have elected to suspend making kits and acceptance of unfinished kits/quilt tops for completion.

If you have an unfinished quilt top with a back, batting and binding and are unable to quilt it or bind it please support each other within the guild, contact friends/members to see if you could trade a service or perhaps contact some of the long arm persons listed on the website to see if they offer quilting at a reduced rate.

In addition we will have a sign up sheet for those that would like to volunteer for the above. This sign up sheet will be at the guild table and referenced on the website.

Everyone receives credit for their portion of input when listed on the Donation Sign In sheet.

Beginning in May please have your quilts totally completed along with a label attached and the size of the quilt written into the label. This allows an easier division of the quilts for distribution.

If you have an organization you wish your quilt to go to please indicate on the sign-in sheet.

We will continue to provide the iron-on labels which can be picked up at guild, and Hazel Williams will continue to be your contact person for batting.

Thank you.

Share & Care

Janet Gilstrap - I wanted to share my exciting news with my quilting friends. I entered 3 pieces in the Pine Tree Quilt Guild show last weekend. To my great surprise, I received 2 red ribbons & 1 blue. All are challenges from the art quilting group I belong to, SAQ.

Sew- Along . . . IT'S BAAACK!

That's right! Sew-Along is back. Please join your friends on Zoom, May 21, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. as we reconnect with each other right from home. Watch for the Zoom Invitation in email on May 20. For our first session we'll be working on a quilter's choice. Use this opportunity to finish any incomplete Sew-Along pattern. I'll be available to answer questions if you're stuck. I'm planning on finishing Villa Rosa's Sweater Weather. Or, if you prefer, work on anything you'd like to do while chatting with your friends. This will be a warm-up session; in June we'll be doing Villa Rosa's English Garden, a 54" x 72" pattern that uses 2 yards of a theme print and 2 yards of Ombre for the background, with 5/8 yards of fabric for the binding.

See you soon on Zoom. Linda Sliepen
