September Program

September is a good month for this year's Ice Cream Social. The guild will provide the ice cream and members are invited to bring their favorite toppings! (think chocolate sauce, caramel sauce, marshmallow sauce, sprinkles, nuts, candy, etc!)

We have so many things to celebrate and be grateful for as we enter my favorite time of year: FALL! Our Bi-Annual Luncheon and Quilt Show and Challenge are over. Hopefully, the dog days of summer and temperatures of over 100 degrees are over.

Just outside of the Sacramento area, beautiful fall colors will make themselves apparent. Apple Hill and apple fritters and hot apple cider are just around the bend. AND "cold weather sewing"!

Snippets . . . from the president

Can you believe it? We have finally reached the "BER" months and my favorite time of year. I love when it starts getting a bit of a nip and crispiness to the air. Of course, as I write this, it is 112 degrees and we're are having record breaking high temperatures ... but in my mind fall is quickly approaching.

I did set out a few autumn decorations. Not too many, since technically it really isn't fall yet. I usually wait another couple of weeks but this year the urge was too great. LOL! I have several totes of fall décor stored in my shed, but it's way too hot to go out and dig through them. So I am trying to patiently wait hoping Mother Nature gives us a cool down.

I have also pulled out several UFO's that are winter and/or Christmas themed and plan to finish a couple of them up. Wish me luck! This year has been a challenge for me, and I also tend to be a wee bit of a procrastinator.

By the way, did you know that the guild has a Facebook and Instagram page? We have close to 100 members on Facebook. It's a great way to interact with members, ask questions, talk about your life and plans, show off what you are working on, and right now we are doing a quick Autumn Mystery. It's fun and free, so feel free to join in.

In addition the Veterans Administration Hospital has requested "busy blankets" for their Alzheimer's patients. We will have a description of these at the next meeting of how this quilt is completed.

Also the Volunteers of America will be accepting Christmas items, ie, placemats, table runners, quilts, pillowcases and of course the always needed personal hygiene items. Probably not too early to begin thinking about some of these items to begin collecting and /or making for donations.

Once again to all GVQG members, thank you for your generous time and donations. They truly are appreciated.

Rachele Doty- My son Spencer works for MHC Kenworth Trucking in Pueblo, Colorado. When he was home for the Christmas holiday I showed him a picture of the truck panel and asked if he would like me to make him the quilt. It was a lap-size quilt. Spencer said, yes, he'd like the quilt but could I make it queen size to fit his bed? Of course, I said yes. Susan, from Swifty's, helped me order the truck panels, then assisted in choosing extra fabric to add to the panels to make the quilt queen size. I delivered the quilt to him in August when we visited him in Colorado City, where he is currently living.

An ice cream social (also known as an ice cream party) is a planned event, the primary focus of which is ice cream served to the guests. It is often a neighborhood event or welcoming party, normally held during the summer.

Ice cream socials are a traditional gathering, dating back to the 18th century in North America. The first one recorded in America was in 1744, when Maryland governor Thomas Bladen served ice cream for a dinner party. The first one in the White House was in 1802, with the 3rd U.S. president, Thomas Jefferson. When ice cream became more available to the public in the 1800s, organizations such as schools and churches started hosting them. Commencing in the 1860s, church events were often fashioned after the "ice cream gardens" common in society at the time. Today, they still take place in governmental and upper class circles and have spread to all classes and many types of organization with the increased popularity and availability of ice cream.

Ice cream socials have expanded into elaborate affairs with many other ingredients and activities planned around it. Various online guides have sprouted up to assist planners.

The world's largest ice cream social was held on January 30, 2019 in Italy. (wikipedia.org)

WHAT'S YOUR FAVORITE QUILTING TOOL?

We all have that one tool, besides scissors, rotary cutters, etc, that is our go to. Maybe it is something that isn't necessarily a sewing tool. What is your favorite tool that you always use? Or what is a tool that you just don't like or work with?

Bring your favorite or least favorite quilting tool to the September meeting to share with us. You may even get a prize.
