PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello Quilters!

I love to say that! It brings me to a place of happiness, thinking of each of you doing what you can, where you are, with what you have! I finished a couple of tops this week and I am so happy just looking at them in the state of completion where they are!

Thinking of what to write about this month, the phrase, "Hot August Nights" came to mind. To some it means Car Shows and Hot Air Balloons in Reno. To others, myself included, it means a quick get away to the ocean and camping. That's where we are headed this week! And the perpetual quilt is already in the truck ready for some more "hand quilting" to happen. I wonder how much will be completed on this trip? We shall see!

At the beginning of the year, I mentioned that I would like to do a President's challenge now and then throughout the year. Let's begin one. Here is your challenge: Make a placemat for yourself. You design it, you choose your pattern, color and style. Let's see what we can come up with. To have it be "usable" would be the only 'rule' I am adding. So if you set your lunch plate and glass on it at the table and they tip over, that would disqualify your placemat. There will be a little show and members will vote for 1st, 2nd and 3rd favorites.

The reason that I chose this as our first challenge... One of our SewBee's from our Mini Group made each of us a placemat. We sew together once a week and sit down to lunch, each using our placemat. Some of us have taken guild workshops and used our placemat at lunchtime and everyone around loves the idea.

Wouldn't it be fun to have everyone using a placemat at lunch break during classes? I sure think so.

Bring your completed placemat to the September 28, 2023 Guild Meeting. Let's step up to the challenge!

From Leann

Hello All-

It is back to school season. I know in my house we have 2 seniors, and they are busy with school, sports and jr ROTC. I finally got released from medical and I went back to teaching and next month going back to school for my master's in special education.

Hope you enjoy the newsletter this month.

TIPS and TRICKS

Hello Fellow Quilters,

I decided to do something different with the Tiffany pattern. Using a 40-strip Jelly Roll, I sewed & cut out per pattern. Then I divided the sections into two piles, & made two 36"x40" quilts which is a good size for wheelchair patients & children.

Quilts of Honor

Did you like the Quilts of Honor Presentation we did at the Christmas Luncheon? Is there a special veteran in your life that you would like to nominate for a Quilt of Honor too? It's time to start working on your quilt now for another presentation at this year's luncheon. You design and make the quilt top, then pass it off to Quilts of Honor to be quilted. It is returned to you with a storage bag for binding and attachment of the special QofH dedication label. The Del Campo Junior ROTC Cadets have already volunteered to do the Presentation of Colors again this year. For more information, contact Linda Sliepen, Sandee Rudolph or Cathy Zimmerman. Information fliers with the nomination form are available on the front counter under the windows at Cameo'
