Linda hates flying geese because she's not very good at them. We chose this pattern to improve her skills. Join us in this sew along session as we master this element of quilting. There's another pattern that uses flying geese that also comes in a mini version. It's called Lazy Goose. We might do that instead.

This is as far out as we care to schedule into the next year. When you're visiting local quilt shops or perusing the internet, let us know if you see a pattern you think the group would like. In alphabetical order, here are a few Villa Rosa Designs to consider... Basket Case, Blueberry Hill, Calabash, Cathedral, Cool Water, Crimson Glory, Dublin, Folklore, Jasmine, Mardi Gras, Moondance, Ninja Stars, Pointless, Saratoga, Serengeti, Shadow Dancer, Sierra Snow, Smidge, Smudge, Starfire, Take Out, Tumblebug, Tuscan Sun, Winchester. OR... Visit Villa Rosa Designs website for even more suggestions. We're in this together; let us know what pattern you'd like to sew.
